Maximus® 1212 : The new Schoeller Allibert Big Box for Apples & Pears

Volume, care & strength

More volume

The unique curved walls and pockets design in the base offers up to 20 liters more than most 1200 x 1200 containers on the market.

Maximus® 1212 optimizes storage use space and truck payload.

Extra care for your apples and pears

The unique base design featuring 4 pockets prevents the fruits from rolling and ensures less damage and bruises from the harvesting field to road transport.

Quality is preserved and profitability increases.

Outstanding performances

500 kg unit load thanks to the reinforced base and 4500 kg at stacking thanks to the new pillars design.

Maximus® 1212 can stack full in piles of 10 units for long term storage.

100% compatible

With automated tipping and handling, with most conveyors types.

Ideal for water sorting process with its fast drying slanted surfaces.

Maximus® 1212 is also compatible at stacking with most of the existing fleets on the market.

Highly ventilated and safe

Maximized air flow speeding the cooling process.

Easy cleaning and content care thanks to the rounded internal surfaces.

Welded lateral runners for optimized hygiene from the field.

Chamfered runners and walls base for fast and safe forklift handling.

Made of food contact HDPE, Maximus® 1212 has a constant tare and dimensions, can be stored outside on long term and does not promote mold.

Optional reinforced pillars version

Increases impact resistance and stacking strength.

Customization & tracking

Secure your fleet, increase management efficiency and enhance your brand awareness: RFID ready, the Maximus® 1212 offers on each side wall inserts for engraving and printing your name and logo along with label holder areas. On top of each pillar are recessed zones for self-adhesive labels ensuring identification and tracking of your containers.

Versatile wide range

4 feet, 2 skids and 3 skids variants to meet all types of pome fruits supply chain needs from harvesting field to retail stores.
